is not a "Dutch" at all, but the audience knows that she is a successful in a twinkling she is Eddie Foy.

sings "I Am Disguised as a Woman,"

LOS ANGELES AT THE FRONT!
LEADS WHOLE COAST, LARGEST IN THE WORLD.
Los Angeles, "Paradise of the Pacific" was an unknown desert quantity when Seattle, Portland and San Francisco were full-fledged seaport cities. Solid wealth, backed with nerve and sturdy faith, have combined in developing Los Angeles more rapidly, more firmly and more safely than any other Pacific Coast city.
Business conditions here are sound and substantial. Some actual figures on newspaper advertising in the four big cities of the Pacific Coast—actual figures compiled by the newspapers in their respective places of publication—tend to show the "state of affairs" in each; that the Los Angeles Times is not only foremost on the Coast in inches of advertising printed for the month of October, 1907, but is the leading newspaper of the entire world in number of pages and volume of advertising.

ANALYSIS.
(1) Los Angeles: The volume of advertising in The Times for October is greater than that of the Examiner, Record, Herald and News combined, besides being greater than the combined total of the two next largest papers.
(2) San Francisco: The aggregate of 98,855 inches printed in the Los Angeles Times is larger than the combined totals of the Chronicle, Call and Bulletin.
(3) Portland: The Los Angeles Times printed more inches of paid matter in October than the two largest Portland papers combined.
(4) Seattle: Advertising in Seattle being confined to only two publications, the comparison of aggregates is not absolutely just to Los Angeles, but nevertheless the Los Angeles Times is shown to print more paid matter by 46 per cent. than the largest Seattle paper.
It should be noted in this comparison and analysis that in Los Angeles the advertising is divided among six papers, in San Francisco four, in Portland three, and in Seattle two, which makes the record for the leading paper in this city—the Los Angeles Times—all the more remarkable. These are great and significant facts.

DARE RESULTS IN TRAGEDY.
Four-Cornered Duel Occurs in Colorado Town.
One Man Dead, Another Dying, Gun Man in Jail.
Wounded Miner Is Tracked by Blood and Killed.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]
TELLURIDE (Colo.) Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A dare, made in a spirit of fun, at Telluride, an expert miner, resulted in a four-cornered duel at the Tombay mine. As a result, Lambert is dead, Thomas Sullivan is not expected to live and Deputy Sheriff Robert Melrose, gunman, notorious for the part he took in Peabody's war on the Western Federation of Miners, is in jail.
Sullivan is a guard at the Tombay. He had interfered in a quarrel between Lambert and Dennis Curtin, and Lambert shot him. Curtin took the wounded man's gun and fired twice at Lambert as he ran, inflicting flesh wounds. Lambert, weak from the loss of blood, succeeded in reaching the Tombay mill, where he secreted himself in the attic. Curtin, following the trail of blood left by Lambert, tracked him to the chamber and shot him down. He made a desperate defense, but Lambert attempted to draw a gun, according to Melrose, and a number of guards at Tombay, Lambert was incapacitated. They say that he had been quarreling throughout the day and was twice put to bed by a night watchman, but insisted upon remaining in the mill. When he arose after retiring a second time, it is said he went directly to the Tombay general store, the store from the boarding-house, where he engaged in a friendly game of dice for cigars. Trouble arose between him and Curtin as to who was "winning" for the treat, and the men came to blows. The shooting followed.

Capt. Waters of Hillsboro, Mo., Who Grabbed Muskets From Wall of Post Headquarters and Bayoneted Capt. Patton, With Whom He Had Fought in Civil War, Goes Free.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]
HILLSBORO (Mo.) Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the Circuit Court of Jefferson county today, Capt. Charles E. Waters, Senior Vice-Commander of James N. Whitehead Post, G.A.R., was acquitted on the charge of murdering Capt. George Patton, a Civil War veteran, and had fought on many famous battlefields. The jury was out only fifteen minutes.
Capt. Patton was killed at Victoria, B.C., in 1864, and in 1865, he was shot by the Confederates. A controversy between the Commander and former Commander over arrangements for the annual picnic of the post. A special meeting of the post was called for the evening of August 18, and about an hour after it was convened Capt. Patton rushed into the hall scolded and abused the Commander, according to testimony, for opposing his plans for the outing.
In the quarrel, Waters tore an old army musket from the wall, and, waving himself as he was won, he nearly half a century ago, angrily warned Patton, who had menaced him with a bayonet, that he would "shoot" him. Patton continued to advance, and the Commander thrust the bayonet into his comrade's abdomen.

JABS FACE WITH HATPIN.
Chicago Woman Sends Man to Hospital When He Insults Her at Her Own Door.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES]
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frederick W. Vanderpool is at the Wesley Hospital here in several hatpin wounds in the face inflicted by Mrs. Garrett McCabe.
Mrs. McCabe had been to the theater with friends and was returning to her home at No. 212 Michigan avenue. Vanderpool, she claims, followed her party and made several insulting remarks. Finally he accosted her as she reached the door of her home. She struck him repeatedly in the face with her hairpin.
Her husband, roused by her screams, appeared, alarmed and pursued Vanderpool to the street. After Vanderpool was taken to the hospital he swore out a warrant for the arrest of the woman, charging her with carrying a deadly weapon. In her turn Mrs. McCabe has caused Vanderpool's arrest on the charge of attempted assault.
CRIME BRIEFS.
Get Furs Fairly.
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—F. E. Wolf is under arrest here, charged with having obtained $25,000 worth of furs from the Great Western Railroad of England. According to the police, Wolf conducted a concern known as "G. E. Wolf and Sons & Co." and represented himself to be an agent for a reputable house of Chicago.
"I hooked a fish yesterday," said the amateur angler, "that watched all of us pounds, but it got off the hook."
"Will you swear to that?" asked the one-man audience.
"No," answered the amateur angler. "I swore enough when I lost the fish."

ON HIS SHOULDERS MANTLE AND WORK.

William Murphy.

who will arrive in Los Angeles today to take up the work of Francis Murphy, his deceased father.

WILLIAM MURPHY, who comes to Los Angeles to revive the permanent gospel temperance work, started here six years ago by his father, the late Francis Murphy, and which ceased only when death called the great reformer, will arrive here this morning by the Santa Fe. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Murphy, their youngest daughter, Lillian, and the second son, Thomas. The eldest son, Allyn, and the youngest, Francis, will remain in Virginia for the present. It is expected that a number of people will greet the party at La Grande station.

Symphony Hall, in the Blanchard building, has been secured for the opening of the meetings, the main hall having been leased to other parties while the movement to bring Mr. Murphy here was under way. The first meeting will be held there on Sunday evening, December 1.

A reception will be tendered Mr. Murphy and his family, prior to the opening night, and this also will be held in Symphony Hall, but no date has been fixed.

William Murphy is much like his father, both in manner and feature, and his father used to say: "Will is a chip off the old block." He has a splendid voice, a genial manner, and a love for men who have won.

For fourteen years he was engaged in the work on his own account, after having traveled widely with his father, and was uniformly successful. He comes here directly from his dairy farm near Williamsburg, Va., leaving the work there in the hands of two of his sons.

During the years on the farm he has not been a plodding farmer, but has devoted much time to lecturing on his favorite theme, and has kept in close touch with public affairs, and the trend of temperance sentiment. He comes to Los Angeles well equipped for an aggressive and winning work along the lines laid down by his famous and honored father, whose motto was those words of the immortal Lincoln: "With malice toward none, and charity for all."

MANY HOURS ADRIFT.

Passenger Steamer Loses Propeller in Heavy Sea and Is Not Picked Up Until Next Day.

Mrs. Edward A. Vanderbilt, who arrived at the Alexandria Hotel last evening, where they will spend the winter, had an experience on their trip from their home at Sitka, Alaska, which they do not care to repeat. They embarked at Sitka on the 4th inst. for Seattle. The following night the vessel lost her propeller, and was rendered helpless. That part of the North Pacific ocean is particularly dangerous, because of the numerous islands and reefs, and there was danger that the ship would drift ashore. For twenty-four hours the vessel drifted in a heavy sea. Another steamer was sighted, the next morning, and the disabled craft was towed into the nearest port, where the passengers were transferred and continued on their journey.

Mrs. Groff said last night that a large number of people from Alaska will spend the winter in Southern California. It is for that purpose that she and her daughter came to Los Angeles.

BUILDING BEE HELD.

Novel Plan Adopted by Church of Christ for Promotion of a New Enterprise.

A novelty in this day of church building, but which was common enough in the days of our forefathers, was a "building bee," held at Thirtieth street and La Salle avenue. Some months ago Rev. George Ringo of the Church of Christ, opened a Sunday-school in the neighborhood and recently, at the close of a series of revival meetings, a church was organized, to be known as the West Jefferson Christian Church. A lot was secured, and the erection of a church begun. To rush the work along, an invitation was issued to a "building bee," a large number of ministers of the denomination, as well as carpenters and laborers, responding to the call, with the result that the church will be completed this week, and will be dedicated next Sunday by Dr. H. O. Breeden, the evangelist, who has been working here for some weeks.

CHIEF CLERK DIES.

Henry L. Bateman Passes Away at His Home on Pasadena Avenue After Long Illness.

Henry L. Bateman, chief clerk of the Pacific Electric Railway Company, died at his home, No. 2004 Pasadena avenue, yesterday morning, after an illness of about three months' duration. He was aged 55 years, and unmarried, making his home with his mother and two sisters. He came to this city five years ago from Nashville, Tenn., and made a large number of friends, among whom he was very popular. He was a thirty-second degree Mason, and a Noble of the Mystic Shrine.

The funeral will be held at Scottish Rite Cathedral on Hope street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be at Roseade Cemetery.

CONCERT AND VAUDEVILLE.

The choir of St. John's Episcopal Church will give a concert in Cuneo Hall on Thursday evening, which is to be partly society vaudeville, and promises to be of special interest. The patronesses are Mrs. H. T. Lee, Mrs. Jarvis Barlow, Mrs. J. H. Norton, Mrs. Jaro Von Schmidt, Mrs. J. W. A. Off, Mrs. H. L. Hyatt, Mrs. H. E. Kerckhoff, Mrs. Melville Eshman, Mrs. A. J. Waters, Mrs. W. J. Doran, Mrs. Josiah Cowles, Mrs. Lewis G. Morris.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.

Judgment was given the plaintiff for $244 yesterday by Judge Ross in the case of the S. Morgan Smith Company against the Riverside Power Company. The action was brought to recover on a contract to supply the defendant with machinery.

THROWS BABY FROM TRAIN.

Young Woman Tries to Rid Herself of Infant, but Little One Is Saved.

While the California Limited was slowly running through the outskirts of Cucamonga, en route to Los Angeles, last evening, an unidentified young woman on the train was seen to hurl an infant child from the window of one of the coaches.

Luckily the child landed in a mass of soft mud and was but slightly injured. A man who was riding on the rear car saw the act and dropped from the car to pick the baby up. When he found it, it was covered with mud, but was practically unhurt. According to a report which reached Los Angeles late last night, the baby was taken to Cucamonga.

Los Angeles police are endeavoring to ascertain more details of this extraordinary crime. A search has been instituted for the woman, who has not been identified. The man who saw the act did not notice the woman nor the car she was riding in. Santa Fe officials here last night denied any knowledge of the affair, although a report was made to them early in the evening and fully confirmed.

CLEAR EIGHT THOUSAND.

Society Vaudeville Last Night for Benefit of Assistance League a Great Financial Success.

It was not possible last night to state accurately the amount of money realized from the Society Vaudeville. The receipts were approximately as follows:

Sale of seats, $1500; programme advertisements, $2500; sale of boxes, $1100; sale of flowers, $35; sale of programmes, $180; donation from Fritz Scher, $50; manager of the "Lion and the Mouse" company, $25; total, $5035. The expenses were about $1200, so the participants provided their own costumes.

BLOW SAFE IN ICE CHEST.

Crackmen Use Novel Method to Prevent Sound of Explosion Being Heard on Street.

The safe of the Duke luncheon, No. 414 1/2 South Broadway, was blown open and rifled by robbers either late Saturday night or Sunday, according to the report received at the Police Station yesterday.

The luncheon is located on one of the busiest streets of the city and supposed to be protected by the police and by two or three agency officers who patrol the stores, yet the robbers worked with safety and had plenty of time.

Entry was obtained by breaking open the rear door of the luncheon, which is situated in a basement. The robbers then rolled a small iron safe from its position directly in view from the street, to the rear of the restaurant. To do this they must have rolled the safe about in full view of pedestrians for several moments. Then they put the safe in the big ice box. They first removed everything from the ice chest and then with the aid of heavy boards rolled the safe into the chest. Nitro-glycerine was used. The heavy walls of the ice box prevented the explosion being heard on the street.

The bottom of the safe was blown out and its contents scattered about the ice box. The robbers secured $75, the proceeds of the restaurant Saturday. Several checks were thrown around the restaurant, but the robbers refused to touch them.

The exemption of foreign wheat from import duty in Turkey has been prolonged until the end of January in consequence of the continuance of the food scarcity.

BARBED WIRE FOR THIEVES.

Orchardists of Monrovia Adopt Plan to Stop Raids on Fruit.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

MONROVIA, Nov. 18.—Fences, fences everywhere, but not a one to climb. That is the situation about here now with many six-strand barbed-wire fences being erected, and each with a projecting strand at the top. Scores of orchardists are fortifying their groves against the onslaught of the tourist who comes at all hours and the marauding huckster who comes in the night. The most exasperating of trespassers is the automobile, who helps himself liberally to the best and with a derisive nod of the iron bids the irate owner farewell. Hereafter, if he gains entrance, he must use his pliers. Groves on the most traveled highways are so often raided that it is not unusual for the rows of trees nearest the road to be almost denuded of fruit. One grower, whose orchard has frontage on three avenues, placed his loss last year, when fruit was netting from $1.50 to $2.00 per box, at over $1000. Throughout the district, complaint is general and, despite objection to the unsightly wire fence, it seems to offer the only practicable protection.

GIVE MOTORMAN NO CHANCE TO USE GUN.

Masked Highwaymen Hold Up Car on Bimini Baths Line and Rob Crew of Their Valuables Including Weapon Carried to Repel Attacks.

TWO masked highwaymen held up Bimini baths car No. 237 about 11:30 o'clock last night just as it reached terminus at Heliopole and Melrose avenues. Conductor J. H. Dixon was robbed of $15.50 and Motorman J. M. Ashbury of $1.50 and a revolver. There were no passengers on the car.

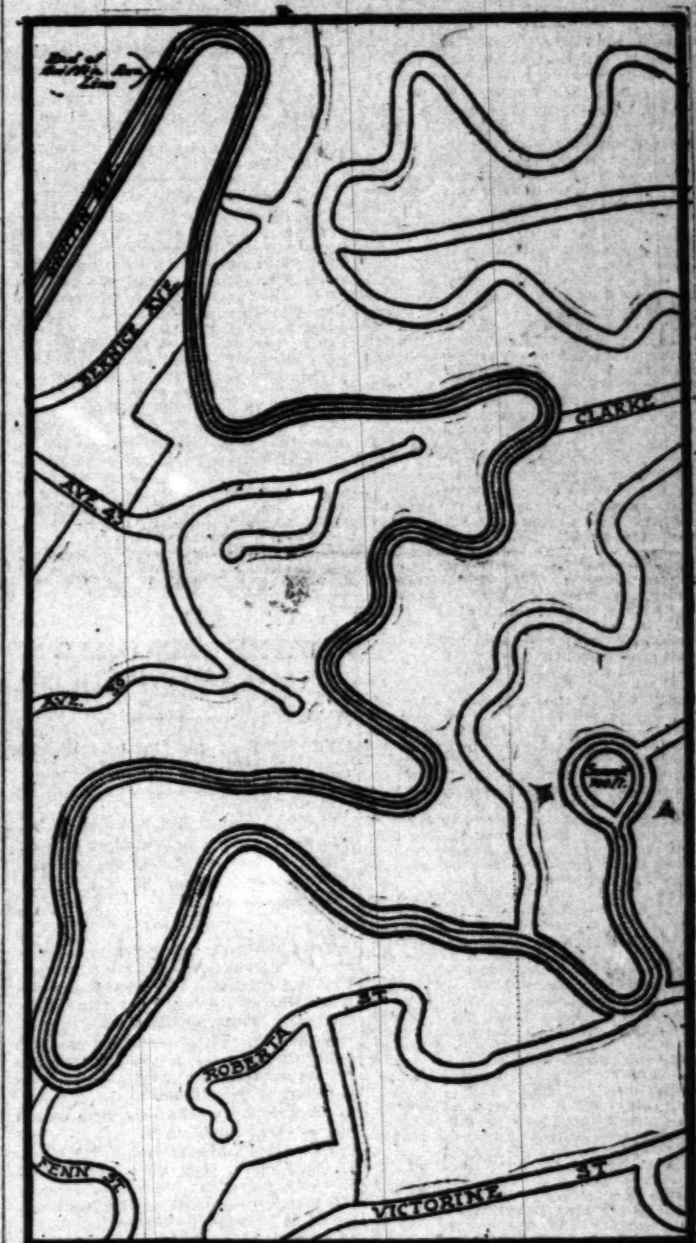

The men were lying in some shrubbery near the roadside when the car came to a full stop. Motorman Ashbury took his appliances off the controller and stepped down on the ground. He was in the act of taking the headlight off the front end when one man shoved his gun in his face. The other man covered Dixon as he swung the trolley off the wire.

In the darkness they relieved the crew of their money. The bandits concealed themselves in the shrubbery again, and ordered the crew to start for the city as fast as possible. "Don't stop to telephone or it will go hard with you," one of them exclaimed. When the car started they disappeared in the direction of Colgrove.

The men answer the same description as the bandits who robbed a crew on an Eastlake Park car last Friday night. They were unable to give a complete description, however, on account of the handkerchiefs which covered the lower part of the bandits' faces.

One man was about six feet tall and of slight build. He carried a long-barreled nickel-plated revolver. His partner, who was considerably shorter, had a blued revolver of large caliber.

MOST CROOKED LINE FOR TROLLEY BEGUN.

Map of the Griffin avenue trolley line extension which, in two miles' length, will traverse a straight-line distance of less than three city blocks.

GRADING is in progress in East Los Angeles for the crookedest railroad in the world. Compared with it, the famous Mt. Zama road, which now holds the squirming record, is as straight as a Mexican's hair. It will take two miles of track to cover a stretch not more than three blocks running north and south and not more than that running east and west.

It is claimed by engineers that there will not be a single straight rail in the two miles of track; every one will be curved.

The road is designed as an extension to the Griffin-avenue street railroad line and will open up for residence the highest tract of land in the city.

The scheme originated with a real estate syndicate which owns a tract of land known as the Montecito Park tract overlooking Pasadena avenue and the Arroyo Seco.

Above the plateau on which this tract is located is a high rolling chain of hills. It separates the tiny, picturesque valley of the arroyo from the valley of the San Gabriel.

From the summit of a ridge, you look down on the one side into Eastlake Park and through a rift in the hills into San Gabriel Valley; on the other side you look down into "Bungawalland," Pasadena, Sycamore Grove, etc.

It is up this chain of hills that Mr. Huntington proposes to build this road. To gain the high plateau, the road wriggles and squirms in and out of cañons and gullies and shines along the side of the mountain.

CROOKED AND COSTLY.

The construction will cost at least $25,000 a mile for the laying of the rails alone. The cost of grading will cost at least $25,000 a mile more.

To put the tract on the market will cost about $55,000.

The cost of the whole line will be borne by the real estate syndicate. Mr. Huntington is said to have been somewhat reluctant to enter into the scheme. One of the concessions that he demanded was the construction of some sort of park, casino or public amusement place on the top of the hill. As first planned, the road was to have connected with the Downey-avenue line, cut through the pass in the hills and connect the suburban hamlet with the city. Mr. Huntington seriously considered this idea and then abandoned it.

The owners of this plateau tract then purchased the hills above them and started on a campaign to convince Mr. Huntington of the practicability of constructing a mountain railroad up to the top.

To meet his skepticism, the owners of the tract have gone ahead on their own responsibility and constructed a narrow fifteen-foot wide roadway over the proposed route. Teams have been at work for weeks; the survey alone cost $4000 and several months of time.

TWISTS LIKE A SNAKE.

The finished map of the road is a wonder. It looks like a snake in an extreme state of emotion. It turns and twists and squirms and doubles back and loops itself and finally turns around a circle and goes back to Griffin avenue just where it started from.

As stated, the road is two miles long, but only covers a track reach three or four blocks long. The tops of the hills are an intricate chain of small plateaus and the road touches them all.

The highest point of the tract will be 300 feet above sea level and the lateral rise of the road will be 450 feet above Griffin avenue where the up-grade work starts. On account of the length of the line and its many twists, however, there will be no part of the road with more than a 5 per cent. grade.

Mr. Huntington is said to have made this one of his stipulations. Most of the grade is vastly less than that.

Where the real estate syndicate hope to get even is by the sale of about 125 lots on the level tops of the hills. On the Griffin-avenue side, the shaded north and west faces of the hills are heavily wooded with eucalyptus and other trees. These slopes will not be

PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
Initiating or counterfeiting clearinghouse scrip was made a penal offense by the Council yesterday.

The Council made a brilliant but futile attempt yesterday to install City Auditor Muehle's new accounting system on a patronage basis.

Mayor Harper sent a message to the Council yesterday recommending the establishment of a municipal gravel pit in the bed of the Los Angeles River.

In a message to the Council, Mayor Harper said yesterday that the treatment of prisoners at the City Jail is "almost inhuman." He urged that something be done quickly to provide relief.

The preliminary examination of John Tway and Mrs. Catherine Tway, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses in trading a farm in Oregon for a dye works in this city, was begun yesterday before Judge Ship.

AT THE CITY HALL.
COUNCIL CALLS FOR MORE PIE.

WOULD INSTALL NEW SYSTEM ON PATRONAGE BASIS.

Administration Makes Final Effort to Provide "Something Easy" for Family—Police Supervisor of Licenses is Latest Addition to Family of Inspectors.

City Auditor Muehle's new auditing system received its first try-out in the Council yesterday. To the legislators it looked like pie.

The Mayor and the administration Councilmen stood it eagerly as a rare opportunity to provide something easy for Jim Craig, ex-Police Commissioner and Second Ward politician.

Mr. Muehle recommended that the position of police supervisor of licenses shall be created. The administration Councilmen fairly tumbled over themselves in bringing along an ordinance providing for such a position and carrying an attached salary of $175 a month. This was the easiest thing that had struck the City Hall during the present administration.

"Danny" Kennedy, secretary to the Mayor, framed the deal so that the place should go to Craig in return for valuable services rendered by the Craig family during the last political campaign. He was very enthusiastic about it, reporting that he was acting under orders.

Kennedy thinks the Craig were pretty well repaid when the administration permitted a wholesale liquor store to locate on Temple street, right in the shadow of Temperance temple, thereby bringing down on the Mayor's head the wrath of the W.T.U.

Councilman Wren exposed the game yesterday, when he asked that the Auditor come before the Council and explain his new plan for license collection. Mr. Muehle came, and said that it is intended to do away with the present expensive system of sending deputies to collect licenses.

"In eastern cities all licenses are made payable at the City Hall just as taxes are paid," said the Auditor. "I have proposed that the position of police supervisor be created that the supervisor may go over the list of licensees and keep his men the whole police force, busy chasing delinquents."

Councilman Healy opened with a spry like a jack-knife: "What will become of the license collectors in the Tax Collector's office?" he demanded.

"There will be no further use for them," replied the Auditor, "after the first month the people will all come to the license desk just as they come and pay taxes now. Every one of the 250 policemen will be a license inspector."

The administration Councilmen began to take notice. One suggested that the Tax Collector be sent for. When interrupted by Mr. Johnson doubting the wisdom of the new plan, but said he would interpose no objections if it means the dismissal of five license collectors in his office.

When moved that the ordinance be placed on its passage with the amendment that five positions of license collector be abolished. The administration Councilmen wanted to create the place of police supervisor and consider the other places later. When moved that the Council might desire to abolish the other places, some of the members might forget to attend when the question was under consideration.

"My experience here has been that it is safer to abolish the other positions first," he said.

But his motion received no second. The Council voted to take one week to consider further the Auditor's recommendation.

Jim Craig sat in the Council chamber while the discussion was on, a passive spectator. It is one of half a dozen places that have been proposed this year for the purpose of making one of the big Second Ward politician.

At the beginning of the present administration it was proposed that he should have the place of chief inspector of streets, but the Board of Public Works resisted all attempts to compel it to ask for such a position.

For a time he was a likely candidate for Chief of Police. The Democrats preferred him to Chief Kern, because Kern had been appointed by the Republicans.

Some of his political friends framed an ordinance to license so-called social clubs that sell liquor under the State charter; the ordinance provided for the place of inspector of club houses, and Craig was proposed for the place. This ordinance died in the committee of the whole.

Next came a campaign for the creation of a place as inspector of police, and Craig was to be the inspector. This ordinance received a hard fall while in the hands of the Finance Committee, sustaining injuries from which it never recovered.

During the last three months Craig's friends have been making a quiet campaign to lead him to the place of the Board of Public Works that will be vacated when Chairman Anderson retires on January 1.

With the administration the problem is still acute: "What shall we do with Jim Craig?" The Republican Councilmen will never consent to a programme that involves the dismissal of five license collectors, merely to make a place for one Democrat.

The City Auditor expressed regret last night that the ordinance creating a new auditing system should be drawn into a dispute over patronage.

TO PROTECT SCRIP.
Initiating or counterfeiting clearinghouse scrip is now a penal offense. The Council passed an emergency ordinance yesterday forbidding the making, printing, writing, engraving, lithographing, distributing, selling, giving away or having in one's possession a paper similar to the certificate issued by the Los Angeles Clearinghouse Association.

This ordinance was adopted at the request of Chief of Police Kern. The chief reported that a number of firms are using dodgers prepared in imitation of the clearinghouse certificates for advertising purposes. Most of these are printed on blue paper, contain the words "Clearinghouse Association" and bear a "T" mark.

The saloons were the first to initiate the scrip and instances were reported to the police where the "phony" paper was accepted as the genuine certificate.

STILL FAVOR STOCKADE.
Mayor Harper sent a message to the Council yesterday prodding the legislators into a realization that something must be done soon to stop the "inhuman treatment" of prisoners at the City Jail.

"The condition at the jail has been known to every member of the Council for nearly a year," says the executive message. "Nothing has been done to bring about even temporary relief."

Each month the condition has grown worse until the treatment of prisoners has necessarily become almost inhuman. Something must be done and done quickly.

Accompanying the Mayor's message was a communication from the Chief of Police asking that a stockade or workhouse be established for temporary relief.

This communication led to a discussion among the Councilmen of a number of plans proposed for relieving conditions at the jail. Dr. Grumgold spoke in support of building a workhouse on a site selected two months ago at the mouth of Chaves ravine near Elysian Park. The land belongs to the city.

When favored the immediate purchase of a place of land on Central avenue near First street and the construction of a new jail and police station there. The message finally landed in the keeping of the Committee of the Whole.

MUNICIPAL SAND PIT.
MORE RIVER-BED PLANS.

Mayor Harper added his voice yesterday to the discussion of ways and means to secure a revenue from the bed of the Los Angeles River. In a message to the Council he advocates that the city shall open a municipal gravel pit in the river bed and keep all sand haulers on the bank. The Mayor says that the only expense will be for a "lift," and a sand separator; he thinks the revenue for the first week will pay the expense.

City Attorney Hewitt had prepared an ordinance embodying the suggestion of the Mayor; but the legislators declined to consider it. The sand hauler's lobby has not yet given its consent. The measure will be considered next Saturday by the Committee of the Whole.

Administration Machines.
Republicans and Democrats joined yesterday in expressing their desire to see a new administration machine with Fire Commissioner Schwamm as chauffeur.

Schwamm went before the Council to speak in favor of a recommendation from the Fire Board for a commission automobile. The Council agreed to purchase a machine for the joint use of the Mayor and Council; just as soon as the city is out of debt.

City Hall Watch Dog.
Granting a request from City Treasurer Hance, the Council created the position of City Hall Guard with an attached salary of $100 a month. Councilman Yonkin handed the place for M. R. Stoyan, a Sixth Ward politician.

The position is supposed to be in the treasury department, the legislators believe. A Sixth Ward politician, the Council has the appointing power.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.
THINK THE DEAL WAS OFF-COLOR.

DYE WORKS SWAP LEADS TO CRIMINAL PROSECUTION.

Farm in Oregon Did Not Come Up to Expectations, and Victims of the Alleged Swindle Cause the Arrest of Former Owners of the Land. Courthouse Notes.

Great difficulty was experienced yesterday, in Justice Selph's court, in getting started with the preliminary examination of John Tway and Mrs. Catherine Tway, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses. The cause of the delay lay in the inability of the complaining witnesses to give a technical description of the property in Oregon for which they had traded a dye works in this city.

Mrs. Flora Lafferty and Rufus Clemmer, who claim they were swindled in the deal, were ready enough to describe the place in language as vivid as is allowed in a court of law. They knew, they said, that the house, instead of being a comfortable residence, was unfit for human habitation; that there was not $100 worth of timber on the place, nor any valuable timber at all, and that other things were not as had been represented to them; but they could not give the township and range of the undesirable property.

Finally a description was secured from a mortgage on the place which Mrs. Lafferty and Mr. Clemmer had given the defendants in part payment, and the examination proceeded.

Mrs. Lafferty testified that Tway had come to the Lafayette Dye Works on Central avenue, in October, 1926, and told of his noble domain in Oregon.

"He told me he had been a railroad man all his life, and that for him to go up there and go to farming would be like going to prison," testified the witness. "He said he wanted to start his son in business here, and thought the dye works would be a good thing. He talked about a trade, but we didn't say very much about it then."

"Next day Mrs. Tway came to the place, but she did not say who she was," she asked me if the dye works was for sale, and I told her yes. She wanted to know what the price was, and what went with it, what clothes and all that."

"It happened to think, and asked her if she was Mrs. Tway. She hesitated a minute, and then said she was."

In spite of this ominous beginning, the trade was made. The value of the farm was placed at $4700. The selling price of the dye works had been fixed at $2000, but the Tways accepted a mortgage of $1000 and the dye works for the farm.

Rufus Clemmer was on the witness stand when 5 o'clock came and court adjourned.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.
BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

YOUTHFUL ERROR. Through an action for annulment of marriage, filed yesterday in the Superior Court, Henry C. Frick, seeks the dissolution of the bonds of matrimony between himself and Manuela Frick, which were tied in San Diego, November 1, 1926. The complaint states that the groom was 19 years of age at the time, and married without his parents' consent. The bride was two years older. The complaint states that the plaintiff has not lived with Mrs. Frick since the marriage.

WANTS HIS JEWELRY. W. C. Weinert yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court to recover jewelry, valued at $2500, which, according to the complaint, was pledged by the plaintiff to W. C. Downing as security for loans aggregating $2275, obtained at different times since May 2. The complaint states that the plaintiff, November 4, tendered the defendant $2832.12, the amount of the loans with interest at 2 per cent, a month agreed, and the tender was refused. It is alleged that Mr. Downing has converted the jewelry to his own use. The plaintiff asks the court to award him the difference between the amount he holds to be due and the alleged value of the jewelry, and five cents as costs, and the amount of his claim.

LOBSTERS. John Roberts and James Rust were fined $20 each by Justice Summerfield yesterday for catching and selling crawfish of a smaller size than the law allows. The minimum length is fixed at eleven inches, exclusive of claws and feelers. Game Commissioner H. L. Fritchard was the complaining witness.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Ventura Mining Company, capital stock, $25,000, with $50 subscribed; Jones Clear Company, capital stock $25,000, with $3 subscribed; Kinmarie Concrete Machinery Company, capital stock $20,000, with $300 subscribed.

CONVENTION'S FORERUNNER.
Successful Elementary Institute Precedes State Gathering of Sunday-school Workers.

The elementary institute, a forerunner of the convention of the Southern California Sunday-school Association, was held yesterday afternoon in the First Congregational Church, and was attended by 200 interested workers in the schools.

This institute is the personal scheme of Miss Anne Brockway, State superintendent of primary work, and is a tribute to her sagacity and enthusiasm. The entire programme was built upon the teaching of beginners, such as the conducting of a model class, by Miss Belva Rice; teaching through the eye and hand, by Mrs. F. Lee Fuller; blackboard demonstrations, by Mrs. E. F. Rosenfield; hand work, by Mrs. Grace Dutton; model primary session, by Mrs. F. M. Wheelan.

The interest was great throughout the session, and it closed with a reception by the Los Angeles Elementary Union to the visiting delegates.

The State convention will convene at 2:30 this morning, and after perfecting the organization an address will be delivered by Dr. B. S. Hayward of Porto Rico followed by "School efficiency," led by Hugh Cook of Chicago. C. D. Meigs will close the session at a brief talk.

In the afternoon the speakers will be Miss Brockway, Dr. H. W. Brockbeck, Hugh Cook, D. Meigs, Thomas Hannay and C. E. Locke. Mayor C. R. Harper will deliver an address of welcome at the evening session, on behalf of the city; E. McVay, on behalf of business men; Dr. William Horace Day, on behalf of churches and schools. At 8 o'clock W. L. Porterfield, State president, will deliver an illustrated talk on the Holy Land.

TO SATISFY A JUDGMENT.
In order to satisfy a judgment against X. H. Holler, former owner of the power station at San Diego, a tract of land belonging to Frances A. Butten, one of the sureties on Holler's bond, was sold at public auction yesterday. Al C. Sittel, Deputy United States Marshal, acted as auctioneer.

With professional skill he "aged" two real estate men to bid against each other until the tract was finally sold at the price of $400, to H. H. Holt of this city. Some time ago W. L. Gallup brought suit against Holler in the United States Court, and recovered judgment of the property in San Diego. Execution was thereupon levied upon property of the sureties.

SUSPECT IS CAUGHT.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Sells Cone, arrested in the St. Bernard parish on a charge of stealing an overcoat from a man engaged in railroad construction at Friscoville, is being held a suspect for murder committed in Fresno, Cal., March 11.

Cone claims to have been in Nashville, Tenn., but his description tallies exactly with that of James Richards, who killed Sheriff Joseph A. Price and for whom there is an outstanding reward of $1000.

Shirley Connelley has communicated with the Fresno authorities, but he has not heard from them yet.

RANCHERS SEEK TO INTERVENE.
The long-standing case of various bond holders against the Peris Irrigation District, came up once more in the United States Court yesterday before Judge Wellborn on arguments relating to the rights of the property owners in the district to intervene. The points were submitted on briefs. The property owners contend that they should not be bound by the provisions of the Peris Irrigation Act, on the ground that the district was formed through fraud. The legality of the district was sustained in a decision of the Superior Court, but appeal was taken to the State Supreme Court. No decision has been given as yet.

Inimitable Master-Productions
in Ready-to-Wear Clothing.

WHY
Have Your Clothes Made to Order?

The trouble of being measured, the innumerable fittings and the consequent waste of time is entirely eliminated when you purchase ALFRED BENJAMIN & CO.'S incomparable Ready-made Garments—with these additional advantages:

A decided saving in cost, a better fit than the average tailor gives, the quintessence of style, unsurpassed wearing qualities AND a view of the finished garment before there is any obligation to buy. Most fabrics in the bolt look different when made up.

Inconvertible testimony in favor of the absolute supremacy of "Benjamin" clothes is found in the fact of steadily increasing business at a time when competitors are resorting to dubious tactics to induce trade.

"SAINT ORLANDO" GOES TO JAIL.

PITZIMMONS SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS' TERM.

Notorious Cumulative Credit Swindler Reaches End of His Rope and Must Pay the Penalty—Fines Assessed Against Two of His Associates, One of Whom Is Dead.

Orlando K. Fitzsimmons, promoter and virtual owner of the renowned Cumulative Credit Company of this city and San Francisco, appeared before Judge Wellborn in the United States Court yesterday to receive his sentence, which has been held up on appeal for more than a year, following his conviction by a Federal jury. He was promptly given a jail sentence of six months, and ordered to pay a fine of $250. John W. Neighbors, the manager of the company's office, formerly located at No. 12 South Broadway, was sentenced to pay a fine of $250. The other defendant, in reported to be dead, but his bondsmen will be obliged to pay his fine of $250. Fitzsimmons, a resident of San Francisco, was arrested in January, 1934, on a charge of using the mail for fraudulent purposes. L. E. Valentine was the United States District Attorney. He pressed the case with great vigor and finally obtained a conviction in September of the same year. Appeal was taken in the Circuit Court of Appeals by Fitzsimmons and his associates. The higher court recently affirmed the judgment of the District Court, and it is now pending in the United States Supreme Court. The Cumulative Credit Company was incorporated for $100,000 under the laws of this state. It occupied a prominent place in the Mason Opera House building, and had other offices in the California building, San Francisco. The company was a success and attracted many persons with a strongly developed taste for speculative ventures. The company paid in no such a month, and were entitled to participate in drawings, which entitled the lucky ones to big profits on a small investment. Shortly after the swindle was launched, United States postal inspectors instructed that it was a legitimate concern, and began investigation. A fraud order was issued against the Cumulative Credit Company, and the swindle was safely exposed in his San Francisco office, receiving mail addressed to the Western Trust Company, Progressive Publishing Company and other fictitious names. Finally the Federal authorities obtained possession of incriminating literature sent through the mails, and through the United States District Attorney had the matter presented to the Federal grand jury. An indictment was returned against Fitzsimmons, Neighbors and Arnett. The indicted man secured able counsel, and contested every step of the prosecution. While awaiting the final disposition of the case, it is said, Fitzsimmons has continued to keep in touch with some of his victims and his Buffalo office, and still receives payments from ignorant victims of his swindle.

MAID'S STORY OF DARING CRIME.

CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN VICTIM OF TWO ROBBERS.

Report at Home of J. T. Fitzgerald Says That Two Men Made Her a Prisoner and One Watched While Other Searched House, but Secured Nothing of Value.

In broad daylight, within calling distance of half a dozen homes in the fashionable West Adams street district, two robbers entered the home of J. T. Fitzgerald, No. 222 West Adams street, yesterday morning, and, after holding the maid up at the point of a gun, looted the house. Such was the statement made by screaming and hysterical Mrs. Joseph Weidel, the maid yesterday morning, when police officers called at the Fitzgerald home.

If the story of the alleged crime which the woman said the detectives are true, the robbery was one of the most sensational ever committed in Los Angeles. The officers who are working on the case are not prepared to say that it is not true, but they are investigating all the details and last night they indicated they may have something interesting to report before their term is concluded. This is the statement of the case as made by the alleged victim of the robbery.

A well-dressed young man appeared at the Fitzgerald home yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. He had evidently been watching the house and noted the departure of Mrs. Fitzgerald, who had driven away for a visit. He walked up to the front door as though he were a friendly visitor. When the maid opened the door, the young man pleasantly asked if Mrs. Fitzgerald was at home. Before Mrs. Weidel could answer, the man, still smiling, drew a revolver from his coat pocket. On the sidewalk, some yards distant, the revolver could not have been seen had any one been passing.

"Keep your mouth shut and back into the hall or I'll blow your head off," said the affable stranger as he requested. She was ordered to go to the kitchen and sit down. There she was confronted by another man, masked, who also held a revolver. She was ordered to sit down and the masked man sat opposite her, holding his revolver pointed her direction. The other robber handed his gun to his confederate and left the kitchen, locking the door after him.

For twenty minutes he remained in the house, securing practically nothing for his pains. He then called to his companion and they left, after warning the maid that any entry on her part would call down a speedy vengeance.

Ten minutes later, when the carriage with Mrs. Fitzgerald drove to the house, the maid became panic-stricken and began to shriek for help. She had been locked in the room. Her husband, who is the coachman at the Fitzgerald home, broke in the back door and learned of the robbery.

TO BE THE LARGEST PIANO HOUSE.

We Will Sell Pianos Exclusively After January 1, 1936.

In order to get the room necessary for our growing trade in pianos, it is necessary to close out every other department. Talking Machines, Sheet Music, and Small Instruments all to go. We want our money back. Our entire stock of Small Musical Instruments, Music Books and Sheet Music, amounting to over $65,000, will be sold at retail at once. We need the room for our increasing piano business and there is no other way to secure it. We can get no more room north, because the Culler Dry Goods Company has the building. We cannot enlarge toward the south or west, for the Boston Dry Goods Company need the space. We already have the entire two floors in front of Blanchard Hall, so we cannot get higher up. We have our rental department down stairs, and balcony floor space on ground floor. We occupy five rooms over our shop and repair department in the Hill Street Building. These we have been using for our Talking Machine Department. This will be discontinued and the rooms used for our Antelope display rooms and free library. Every Violin, every Guitar, every Mandolin, every sheet of Music, every Music Book, in fact, everything in this department will be immediately closed out for what they will bring. We need the room and are willing to take our money back. No such opportunity has ever presented itself to the Musicians, Teachers and general public in Los Angeles. The stock of the Bartlett Music Company has always been kept up to the highest standard. Every customer who advertises a sale that the goods and prices are exactly as advertised. The chance has come right in the Holiday Season just before Christmas, when musical instruments and music are in demand. For you to buy enough musical instruments for the whole family for a few dollars.

Store opens nights till Christmas. BARTLETT MUSIC CO. 201-223-225 SO. BROADWAY, Opposite City Hall.

NOT FOR CHILDREN ONLY.

Gentry Bros. Trained Animal Show Delights Hundreds of Little Ones of Forty Years Ago.

Contrary to the popular notion, the small boy was not alone in his glory at Gentry Brothers' Dog and Pony Show, which gave its initial performance of a four days' stay in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon. The show with its troupe of trained dogs and ponies, seemed to have attractions for everybody and while there was a generous sprinkling of children, crowds of erstwhile adults men and women predominated.

Even with all its pristine glory turned to tawdriness, its old dogs with old tricks, and its old ponies with still older tricks, the show retained its laugh-provoking qualities. Spectators awaited the acts which followed one after another with hushed anticipation, with smiles of bewilderment and expectancy. Half a hundred howling puppies did their canine tricks and a score or more of horses performed their none-too-wonderful feats with the same didactic manner that their fathers and grandfathers assumed in past generations.

A herd of elephants did a series of heavy evolutions which was the feature of the bill as far as the spectators were concerned. They were really good and displayed an almost human intelligence, considering their size and thick hides.

A group of performers as the Landour family posed and later of living statues pictures and later came out with all the show washed out of time and out-of-date tricks, but with all its drawbacks, it is still worth the price of admission.

The route of today's street parade is as follows: Down Twelfth to Olive, to Pico, to Main, to Twenty-eighth, to Figueroa, to Twenty-third, to Union, to Pico, to Olive, to Twelfth and to show grounds.

At an early hour yesterday morning fire gutted the buildings on Howard street, Omaha, Neb., occupied by the Peacock Printing Company, Peacock Book Company, Omaha Mitten Company and Bramblett, Engineers Company, and damaged the building of the Waters Printing Company. Loss is estimated at $75,000.

"Ramona Arrives." Helen Hunt Jackson, the author of "Ramona," gave to the world a great novel. Her story is well maintained in the beautiful villa tract that bears the name "Ramona." The "Ramona" is only twenty miles away from the heart of Los Angeles, on the city with perfect artesian water. The city is a beautiful and fertile. Maps and booklets free. "No trouble to show goods." Local agent on the tract, The Eastern Realty Company, No. 610 South Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal.

MAYOR OF PASADENA AGAINST BUYING FIRE ENGINES.

Has a Plan for Reservoir Up at the Foot of the Mountains, to Give Strong Water Pressure for Fire Service Without Use of Pump.
Elder's Sudden Death.

City of Pasadena, Nov. 18.—Continuation of the legal holidays will postpone many needed city improvements and the bond election for some time.
Everything is ready for the passing of the ordinance calling upon the citizens to vote bonds for the electric light plant, sewer bonds, and other bonds.
When the Governor, declares the holidays at an end the final steps will be taken.

At the meeting of the commissioners yesterday the question for better protection for the east side of the city was discussed. Commissioner Medill is pushing this proposition and wants at least $25,000 of bonds voted so that a steamship may be placed in the Mentor-street house, the Pasadena street
section on the west side of the city and if possible an aerial truck purchased for the city.

Mayor Harting stated with the commissioners yesterday to submit this matter to the Council for its opinion and a vote thereon. On the other hand he is not very anxious to include this matter in the coming bond election.
He points out that the city is now paying $125 per day for its present protection. He is not opposed to improving the fire department and at the last appropriation of the city funds gave his hearty support and anxious to everything the fire chief and commissioners asked for. In this instance he says that the city ought to go slowly. It is his opinion, induced by a number of the Councilmen that the chemical engine now on the east side can take care of all the fire in that section. Commissioner Medill says the chemical engine is only first aid to the fire and that the city must always follow the chemical engine to secure good results.

Mayor Harting stated that the city water plants now ready for purchase, and immediately after the completion of the plants to run steamers that in two years or less would be absolutely useless to the city. He also points out that in 30 per cent of the first fire the chemical engine done the work before the steamers arrived. On the east side, it is said to be impossible for the city to buy the steamers and that no fire could spread rapidly and that the steamers could not arrive in time to stop any conflagration in this neighborhood. The Mayor's plan of a great system of gravity mains is well supported by the members of the City Council and it looks now as if this part of the bond issue would be omitted at the coming election.

ELDER DROPS DEAD.—
Friends of Elder Addison J. Howard were shocked yesterday when they learned that he had dropped dead on the streets of Los Angeles was sent here.

Mr. Howard had only yesterday started in on an advertising scheme to spread the usefulness of the Seventh Day Adventist sanatorium at Glendale and Loma Linda. He was 55 years old and had been in the city for a few days. He had a slight stroke and his friends thought he might lose the sight of his right eye, but none of his family or friends were alarmed. He was 55 and a native of Iowa.

PRISON AUDITOR'S REPORT.
City Auditor and Assessor Don D.
Kellogg sent one of his recent reports to Hon. C. Wilson of the House of Representatives. He was gratified to hear from that gentleman that the system of accounts in Pasadena seemed far superior to anything they had in Wisconsin or Minnesota.

BREAKS BOTH ARMS.
Agnes Krueger, who lives with her sister, John Bendowski, at 901 Hammond street, yesterday fell down a flight of stairs and fractured both her arms. When the child fell both arms were doubled under her and the fractures are severe.

FORM REALTY BOARD.
Around a sumptuous banquet board
at the shaderness Club last night,
the thirty-three real estate brokers of this city formed the Pasadena Realty board, by selecting J. C. Brainerd president and C. V. Sturtevant, secretary pro tem. The gathering was enthusiastic and harmonious. First among the speakers was Oliver E. F. Lusk, who discussed the financial situation.
While he refrained from going into the causes of the eastern panic, he paid a high compliment to the local banks for the measures they had taken to protect their depositors and clients and the extreme liberality that had characterized their dealings during a period when other similar institutions were tightening up all around.

Districts.

POMONA, Nov. 18.—Surveyors for the Pacific Electric Company arrived here today and went to work on Second street, Grey avenue and Flint avenue, preparing to lay the laying of track by the construction crew, which arrived here late this evening, and which tomorrow will commence work upon the three miles of track to be built here prior to December 4.

HOLLYWOOD.
HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 18.—Miss Maud
Crawford, youngest daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Charles L. Crawford of No.
100 Loma avenue, was married to Frank J. Peering, a young businessman of Los Angeles, Rev. Robert J.
Burdette officiating. The young couple left for a two weeks' trip through the northern part of the state, after which they will be at home in Hollywood.

SO RELIEVED TO DROP HOT IRON.

"POLLY PRY" CASE, DISMISSED, PASSES INTO HISTORY.

Long Beach Sanitation Division
and Class With Dismissal of Charge by Municipal Moving It on His Docket—Much Attention Showered on School Children.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 18.—As has been suspected for several weeks, the famous "Polly Pry" case was only a flash in the pan. The iron became hot when it was for the Municipal District Attorney's office to provide means by which the holders could let it go.

The case of Mrs. Ethel Harrington
("Polly Pry") and Mrs. C. L. Tremble, charged with conspiracy to extort, was called before Recorder Hart at 10 o'clock this morning and the audience was painfully small as compared with those who assembled on previous days
set for the trial, postponed on account of the illness of the defendant. But Jack Slater and Will B. Julian, the young men who were the willing lamb, were absent.

After Recorder Hart had called the case, Maj. Donnell, from the District Attorney's office, arose and said: "If the court please, when I was here two weeks ago I took the statements of Mrs. Harrington and Officer Phillips.
I have examined them in the light of the evidence and I am satisfied that there is no case against the defendants and I am satisfied that the evidence will not be sufficient to convict."

He then read the complaint, in which Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Tremble were charged with inducing Jack Slater and Will B. Julian to come to their homes and act as go-betweens in the sale of the city bonds. The complaint stated that they would be exposed and disgraced in the event that certain money were not paid, and that the city would be exposed and disgraced in the event that the money were not paid. The complaint was read and the court found that there was no case against the defendants and that the evidence was not sufficient to convict.

Attorney David G. Taylor, who represented Mrs. Harrington, charged, however, that the police had not acted in good faith and that his clients were ready and anxious for the case to come to trial.

The magistrate, however, decided that in view of the District Attorney's motion to dismiss there was no reason to proceed further, and nolle the case.
It was noted that as all the principals in the case filed out they were a distinct look of relief.

CHILDREN VISIT WARSHIPS.
As early as 7:30 o'clock this morning the pier was black with children waiting for the launches to carry them to the flagship West Virginia, for a new Uncle Sam's gift, a privilege accorded them by special invitation of Admiral Dayton, and by 10 o'clock 150 youngsters are swarming
all over the cruiser. Not only Long Beach, but Compton, Redlands and Los Angeles were represented. The school boys, dressed in holiday and if any failed to make the trip, they were not missed.

The children were accompanied by teachers, principals and chaperones
and enjoyed their trip to the fullest extent. Every nook and corner was explored, the officers and men appearing to take delight in explaining to the young visitors the workings of the guns and the various other machinery.

Tomorrow the flagship will entertain 100 students from Polytechnic High of Los Angeles, a special train having been made on the Pacific Electric to take them to the ship. The sea today was in direct contrast to yesterday, being as placid
and smooth as the proverbial mill pond.

A sort of social feud exists between the crews of the West Virginia and Maryland and the boys of the flagship made every effort at their grand ball in the Auditorium tonight to eclipse the function given by the Marylanders last Thursday. And the affair was at least equal in elegance and appointments in every way. Admission was by invitation only, 2000 of which were issued and in such demand that at noon today, not one was available.

Guests, Pasadena and Santa Barbara and if any failed to take advantage of their absence was not noted in the merry, jolly throng that filled the Auditorium, and danced away the hours of night. The orchestra from the ship furnished the music and over 200 couples participated in the grand march, which was led by Capt. Milton and lady, followed by Lieutenant Commander Sigmond and lady. The committee in charge was very attentive and the function was one of the most entertaining and successful ever held in the Auditorium.

In return for the hospitality of the ministry troupe of the West Virginia for their effort Saturday night in behalf of the charity fund of the Elks,
that organization tendered the boys a banquet last night at the Pompeian Cafe at Naples, leaving here at 7 o'clock and returning at 10:30 on an express car. Joe W. Young, Jr., acted as toastmaster and under his direction the affair was a social success.

H. O. Emmoth, chief yeoman of the West Virginia, received word on his arrival here that his wife was dead in the East and had been buried before his arrival here. Two children survive and are in the hospital. It will be five months before the sorrowing father will be able to see them.

PREPARING FOR FLEET.
All Seaworthy Craft in and About Venice to Be Pressed into Service for Transporting Visitors.

VENICE, Nov. 18.—The coming of the season is expected to draw thousands of visitors during the four days of its stay here, and there is to be great activity among the gasoline launches
in the carrying of visitors to the fighters at anchor just off shore. By common consent, the price for round-trip tickets is to be 25 cents, and there will probably be all the business the city can handle. A number of the worthy craft in the vicinity are seeking wharfage in the still waters behind the breakwater. There is no doubt as to the difficulty in taking on and discharging the human cargo, which is to include not only children at the uniform price of 25 cents per launch, but also adults.

ROYAL GREETING IS THE SCHEME.

WELCOME FOR WARSHIPS AT RE-DONDO BEACH.

Former Governor is Chosen for Chief Host for the Fleet—Bostmen
Will Be Required not to Charge
More Than Twenty-five Cents for Carrying Visitors to Cruisers.

REDONDO, Nov. 18.—At a meeting of the Citizens' Committee held this morning at the Pavilion, ex-Gov. H.
H. Markham was unanimously chosen chairman of the committee and chief host of the fleet of warships which will anchor off here Wednesday.

C. H. Burnett, manager of the Redondo Improvement Company, and general manager of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway, was elected vice-chairman. E. C. Thomas, manager of the Redondo Pavilion, was elected secretary, and C. J. Cruller, assistant secretary.

C. W. Grassel, O. C. Hinson and Rev. Charles DeGarmo were appointed a committee to arrange for the schoolchildren and supervised their trip to the ships. An Entertainment Committee was appointed, with Dr. D. R.
Hancock as chairman. A Floor Committee, in charge of the dancing floor in the Pavilion, with E. C. Thomas as chairman, was selected. C. J. Cruller was appointed chairman of the Juvenile Committee, and J. P. Luxford was placed in charge of the Committee on Decorations. Ways and Means Committee, consisting of L. F.
Wells, M. J. Moore and C. W. Grassel, was also appointed.

Mr. Burnett says that the necessary meals will be provided, and that every precaution will be taken to provide for the safety of visitors to the ships.
A large boat will be located at the landing pier and another at the ship assigned to receive visitors for the day. There is to be an ample supply of launches, and, in addition, the tug Redondo will be in commission to transport passengers to the ships.

A uniform rate of 25 cents per passenger will be charged for the trip to the warships on the launches, and no launch owner will be permitted to charge more, under penalty of forfeiture of his landing privileges. There will be no special rates for the inter-city boats, but the officers and men of the ships will be carried free to and from Los Angeles.

On Wednesday evening the citizens of Redondo will entertain the men of the four ships at a ball at the Redondo Pavilion.

The ball and reception at Hotel Redondo on Thursday evening is intended to be the grand social event in connection with the visit of the ships here. It is to be given to the officers of the ships by the people of Los Angeles and Redondo together. Misses Hanning, Randolph, and Mr. H. B. Alsworth, E. Avery Mc-Carthy, and about twenty other ladies are the patronesses.

On the same evening the men of the Colorado will give a ball at the Pavillion in honor of the ship. The men of the three other ships have given entertainments at Long Beach and will be expected to do the same at Redondo.
